Uri Danino, 25 years old, was abducted from the party in Ra'im. Uri is the eldest son in his family, a young man who always helps and takes care of everyone. His four younger brothers see him as both a "father and mother," knowing that Uri will do anything for them. Bringing the whole family together is one of the most important things for Uri. His girlfriend, Liel Avraham, is doing everything together with his family to bring Uri home.

Uri greatly enjoys parties and music; he's a lively young man who delights in making others happy. He's also an avid surfer and finds joy in making a cup of coffee in the midst of nature - in fact, it's his trademark. Uri has always had a penchant for helping others and consistently prioritizes the needs of others over his own. Everyone knows that Uri is always there when help is needed.

For example, on October 7th, he was at the party in Ra'im and had already rescued some friends and brought them to safety in his car. And yet, despite reaching safety, Uri insisted on returning to the party venue to help others, including friends he had met just that day - Mia and Itai Regev, and Omer Shem Tov. Unfortunately, during this daring rescue, they were all kidnapped by Hamas terrorists. Mia and Itai Regev were later released in a hostage deal, but Uri and Omer remain in captivity. Uri's favorite cake is apple cake.
