

DOLEV YEHUD (35)

@bring.dolev.and.arbel.home

Dolev, who grew up in Kibbutz Nir Oz, is married to Segal and father of four children - the youngest of whom was born ten days after the kidnapping. He is a family man through and through, a person who invests all his energy and time into his nuclear family and always helps and cares for his parents and siblings.

He enjoys including his children in his fitness training, taking them on bicycle trips, and riding to the fields near the house to teach his children about the different crops of the kibbutz. Dolev has many friends of all genders and demographic groups, whom he hosts for coffee or beer almost every day. For Dolev, a sense of humor is an essential part of life. At the same time he is a serious and thoughtful person. Dolev is a volunteer medic at Magen David Adom and Hatzalah, likes to watch stand-up, and listens to comedy and current affairs podcasts. Dolev was kidnapped from Nir Oz together with his sister, Arbel, and her partner Ariel Kunio.
