

ALMOG MEIR JAN (21)

@save_almog

Our Almog went out to have fun at the Nova party and was brutally taken to Gaza from there. At quarter to eight in the morning on October 7th he woke up his mother and said: "Mom, the army closed the party, I don't know what's going on here, there are shots in every direction, I'll call you every half an hour, I love you" and since then the contact was lost.

We put up a post on social media if anyone saw him, at around 12:00 noon a girl sent us a video that was published on Telegram of Almog with four other young men (it became clear later that they were also from the Nova party) lying on the floor, scared and covering his face with his hands.

On October 8 on Sunday he was supposed to start his long-term job after working temporary jobs; our Almog is a child of light and joy, with a captivating smile, a child of love, loved by everyone. He is the magnet that connects everyone, with a great sense of humor, he makes everyone laugh, and is a very sensitive and kind hearted boy.

We miss him all dearly every minute of every day, his family and friends.
