

ALEX LOVNOV (32)

@bring_alex_home

Alex made it all the way from Russia to Ashkelon when he was eight years old and fell in love with the city, its beaches and surfing. Alex likes to go for walks in nature at every opportunity, he has a jeep and is a big part of the jeeping community in Israel. He leads many tourists, showing them the beautiful Land of Israel.

Alex likes Israeli music in general and old music in particular, going to concerts and enjoying life. He is always the first to help. Above all, he is a husband to Michal and a father to two-year-old Tom and another son born while in captivity.

Alex worked as a bar manager at the party in Re'im, and after 18 days in which he was missing, he was declared abducted. Alex has a medical problem with his leg, and he needs medication.
