

ELIA COHEN (27)

@bringeliyahome

Elia is the eldest brother of three sisters, of a religious family from Tzur Hadassah, who left the religious observance before the age of 16. He used to be a party producer and today he is a salesman and started working in real estate. Elia is a sensitive and empathetic person, full of friends in Israel and abroad. He planned to propose to his girlfriend Ziv. His mother said of him that she is "sure that he helps the babies in Gaza, plays with them and takes care of them."

Elia was kidnapped from the party in Re'im, where he went with his girlfriend Ziv. When the massacre began the two fled, grenades and RPGs were thrown at them. Ziv fell, and dead bodies fell on her and that's how she was saved. Elia got injured. According to the reconstruction, they looked at each other and held hands, and he managed to say that he was injured and he was fine, but then someone pulled him from the pile of bodies and he was taken prisoner.
