

DAVID KONIO (33)

David is a person that cannot be described in words. Simple, down to earth, humble and a perfect father and partner. David is an identical twin. It was a big surprise when he and Sharon found out they were expecting identical twin girls. David is an amazing uncle to all his nephews and nieces. As someone who himself has a child's soul, he always knows how to connect with children on an unimaginable level. David and Sharon established their home in Nir Oz out of love for the kibbutz, simplicity, fields and believed that this was their little piece of paradise where the girls could grow up in the most ideal way.

On the Black Shabbat, David was kidnapped along with Sharon, their 3-year-old daughters Emma and Yuli, his sister-in-law Daniel and her daughter Amelia, after hours of fighting with the terrorists on the door of the MMD and after their house was burned to the ground. They all returned except for David. Yuli and Emma need their father, Sharon needs her other half.
