

ELIAKIM LIBMAN (24)

Our Elikim loves to cook

He prepares everything with love. Slices thinly on a wooden cutting board with a quality knife.

He invests precisely and does not give up until it turns out tasty and looks beautiful.

He likes to spoil us with food.

To arrange it nicely on a plate, So that it will be beautiful to the eye and delicious to the palate.

We miss you, Elikim

We're waiting to hug you already. and enjoy your food.

Elikim grew up and was educated in Kiryat Arba. In high school, he started studying at the Lev Institute (Machon Lev), then moved to a Chevruta Yeshiva. He later studied at pre-army Mechina program through the Reform movement and then enlisted in the Golani unit of the army. After his release he chose to study cooking, worked in restaurants, and at the same time also worked on jeep tours. A few months before he was kidnapped, he moved to Tel Aviv.

Eliakim is the fourth child of eight brothers, and is called "Robin Hood" by his family. A happy and optimistic guy, always the first to help and assist. On October 7, Eliakim was at a party in Re'im, and helped rescue many people including wounded people, until he was kidnapped with his friend Eitan Mor. Eliakim marked his 24th birthday in captivity.
