

SHLOMI ZIV (41)

Shlomi, aged 41, worked as an usher at the Nova party in Ra'im. Shlomi was someone everyone wanted to be around. Extremely charismatic, with a strong presence, wise, knowledgeable, and an engaging conversationalist, Shlomi loved acquiring knowledge in various fields, always prioritizing others. He possessed an intellect that every woman dreams of having in a partner, nurturing, caring, loving, generous, surprising, and respectful.

Three years ago, he decided to pursue a dream and started studying interior design, a field he had always been passionate about. He successfully completed the program but had not yet received his certificate. According to reports received on the morning of October 7th, Shlomi calmly and quickly evacuated the party attendees, reassured all those who were anxious, and tended to the wounded. We pray and hope for Shlomi's return and for the return of all the kidnapped.
