

GADI MOSES (80)

Gadi is one of the founders of Kibbutz Nir Oz, where he has been living for over 60 years. A father and grandfather figure, he dedicates a lot of time to his grandchildren, using it to spend quality time with them and to discuss a variety of topics. Gadi greatly enjoys a good drink with something sweet on the side, preferably chocolate or ice cream, and these cookies are one of his favorites!

He is an agronomist by profession, and has mentored many of the farmers in the south. He is a respected expert in his field both in Israel and worldwide. A few years ago, together with his friends from Nir Oz, he planted a vineyard and established a winery where they produce wine for personal consumption.

Gadi was kidnapped from Kibbutz Nir Oz along with his partner of the last 18 years, Efrat Katz, their daughter Doron and granddaughters Raz and Aviv. Efrat was killed in the fields of the kibbutz on her way to Gaza, while Doron and her daughters were released from Hamas captivity after 49 horrifying days.

These cookies, are Gadi's favorite
