

CARMEL GAT (39)

Carmeli, her friends call her 'Caramel', might not be a great cook but she loves food - quality food and simple food.

Chocolate sausage is a dish that has been passed down in our family. Our grandfather, one of the founders of Kibbutz Be'eri - where Carmel grew up - used to make chocolate sausage with his grandchildren and we all enjoyed eating it together. Carmel is the eldest granddaughter, and she and her grandfather had a special connection - a great love that lasted until his last day. Carmel was kidnapped from Kibbutz Be'eri, and we are waiting for Be'eri to return to being a place of family meals and sweet memories, where we will sit together with Carmel, as a family, over a simple and good chocolate sausage.

These cookies, are Carmel's favorite
