

EITAN LEVY Z''L (53)

@bring_eitan_home

Eitan Levy was a pampering father and a warm and loving man. He and his only son Shahar used to go on trips every weekend, enjoying heavily carnivorous meals. Ethan had two German shepherds, Casey and Belle, whom he lovingly trained. He was a dedicated worker, a taxi driver, always ready to help. Eitan enjoyed music, especially the songs of the Revivo Project and Dudu Aharon.

On the morning of October 7, Eitan drove a friend to her house in kibbutz Be'eri. While he was talking on the phone, sounds of a struggle and Arabic were heard, then the connection was lost. 62 days later, Eitan's family was informed that he had been murdered and that his body was in captivity.
